The Art of the City

Walk to the subway and access the extensive underground PATH network with thousands of exciting possibilities. Live surrounded by world-famous universities, museums and topnotch healthcare centres like Mount Sinai and Princess Margaret Hospitals. Walk over to the vibrant Yonge-Dundas Square and incredible shopping at Eaton Centre. Enjoy an award-winning show in the Entertainment District, famous for Roy Thomson Hall, Royal Alexandra Theatre and more. The Financial District, Air Canada Centre, Rogers Centre and Harbourfront, which has a year-round calendar of exciting events, are also close by. Streetcar routes and subway stations are literally at your doorstep, connecting you to Union Station, Union-Pearson Express and Billy Bishop Island Airport.

Experience the excitement and energy of a dynamic, world-class metropolis. This is what living at the centre of everything feels like. Located at University and Dundas in the heart of downtown, Artists' Alley is just steps to theatre, opera and entertainment and moments to the waterfront, transit, shopping and dining
